Sir Jean Molinetti escorts Lady Denise Sadicoff in the Homecoming Assembly.

Vi-Queen Ruthy Salazar walks down the steps before it was announced that she had won.

With the excitement of Homecoming, many people made new friends and renewed old acquaintances with alumni who came back to visit.

Foreign Exchange Students, Jean Molinetti, Denise Sadicoff, and Sylvia Tresnjak have made many lasting friends. Meeting and knowing them helped us to increase our knowledge of other countries.

Mr. Kelly directs the marching band in practice before a game in the fall.

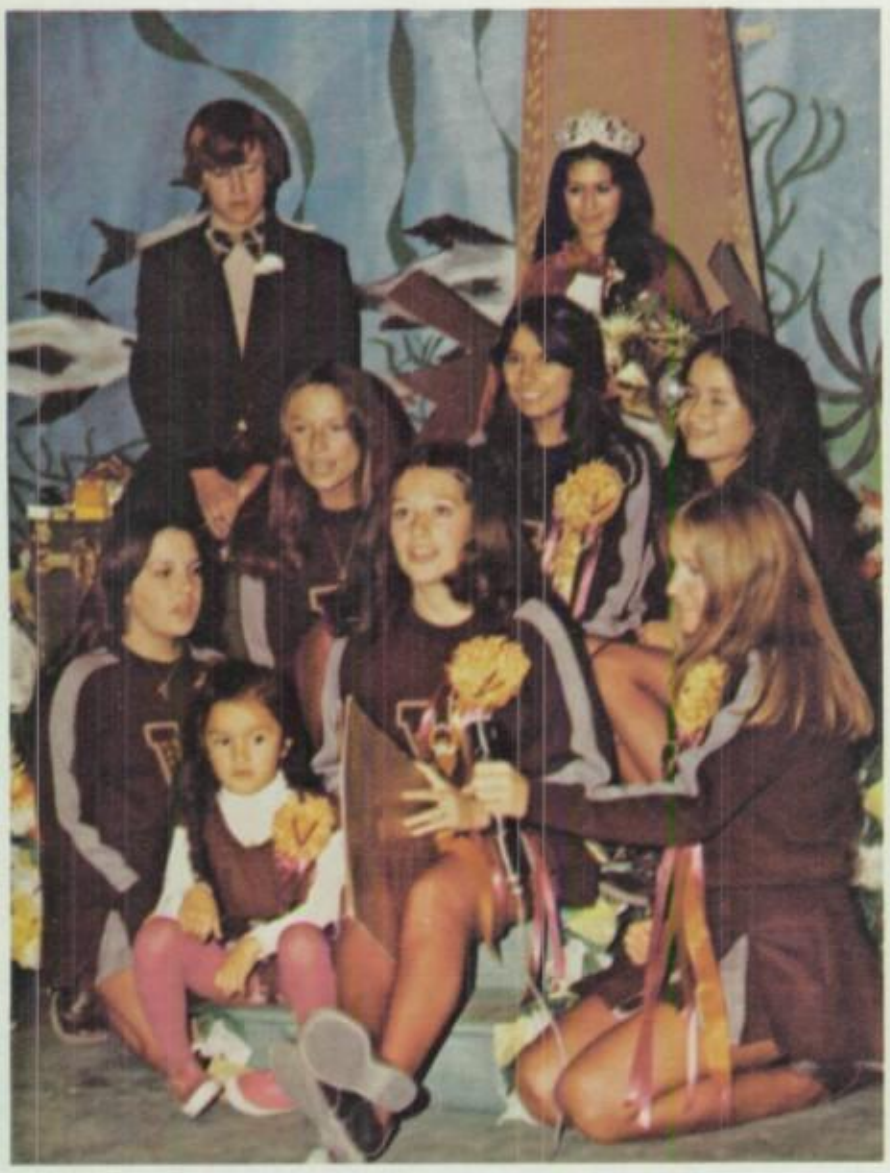
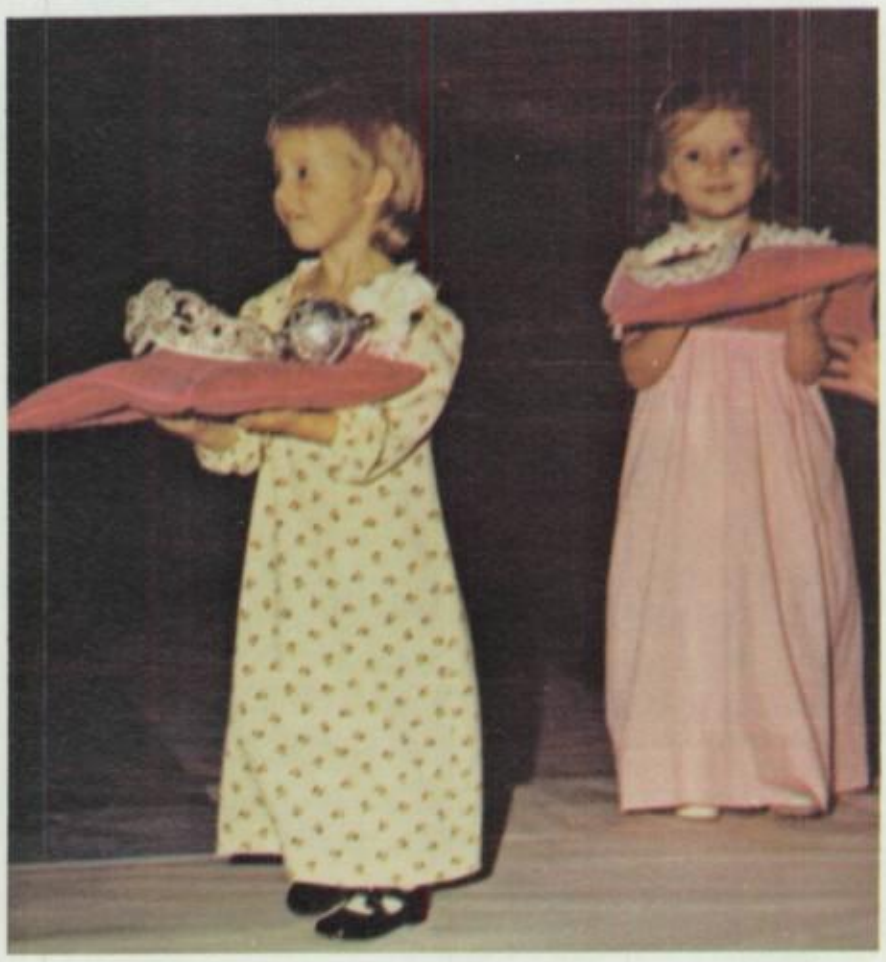
If your friends are there then everything's
all right . . .

. . . It seems to me a crime that we should age; these fragile times should never slip us by . . .



. . . A time you never can or shall erase as friends together watch their childhood fly.



V.H.S. Celebrates 19th Annual Homecoming

October marked the celebration of Valley's 19th annual Viking Day. "There's Got to Be a Morning After" seemed an appropriate theme which was used throughout the homecoming festivities. Queen Ruthy reigned over the assembly, game, and dance.

The dance was held at the University's Student Union Ballroom. The dance concluded the activities for the 1973 Viking Homecoming.

Upper left: During the Homecoming Assembly, the cheerleaders sing "The Valley Legend" to the queen and her court. Upper right: Crownbearers this year were Lisa Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Robertson, and Tracy Ewing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Ewing.

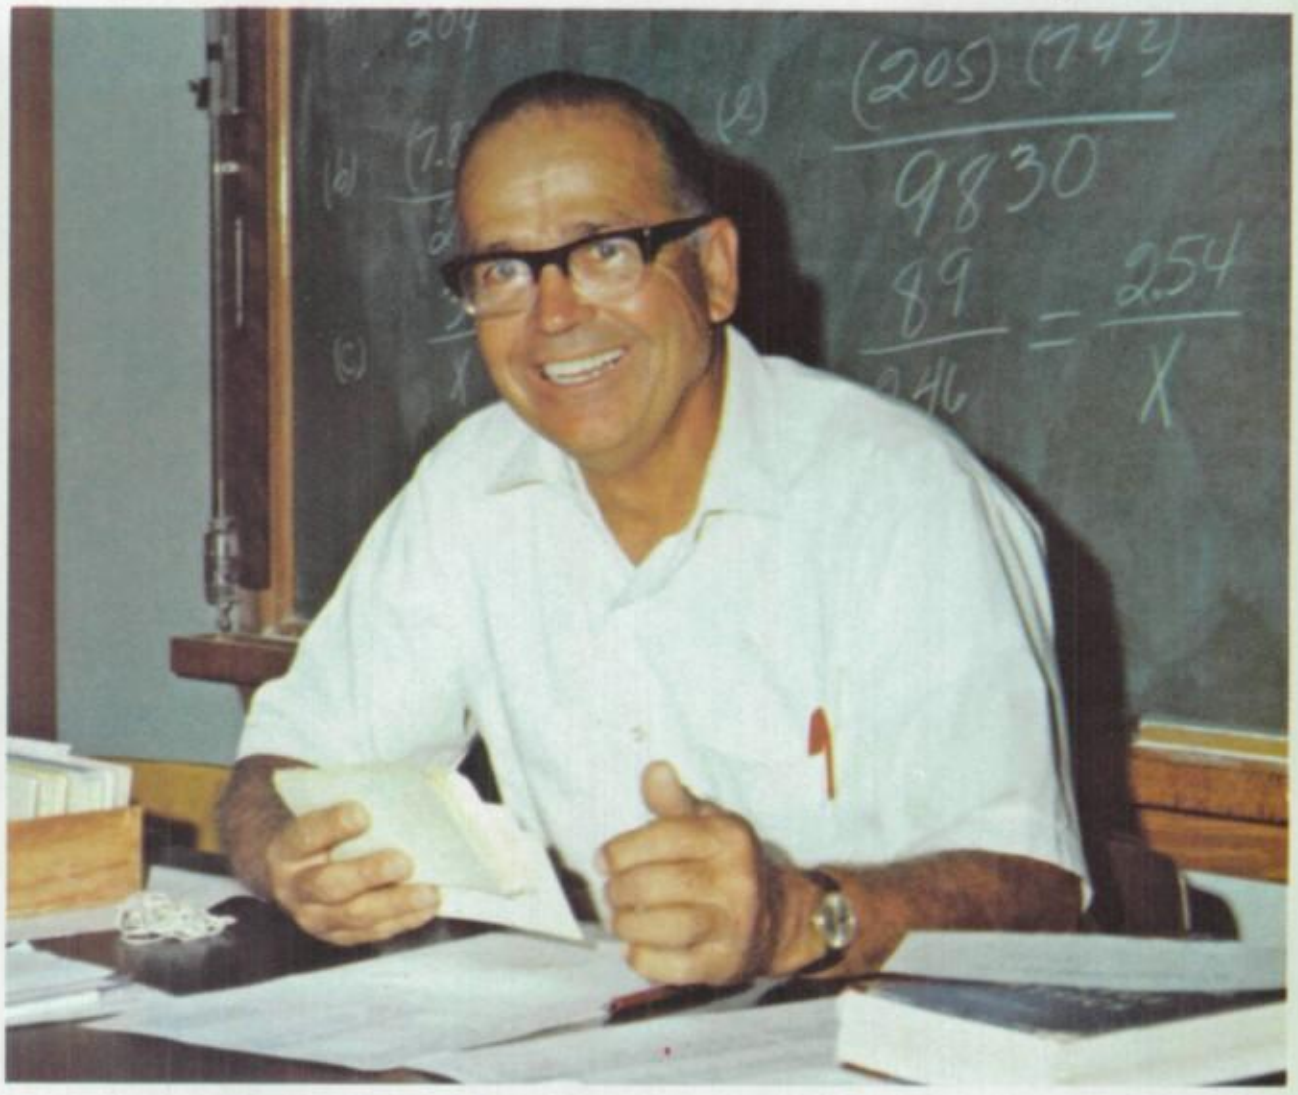
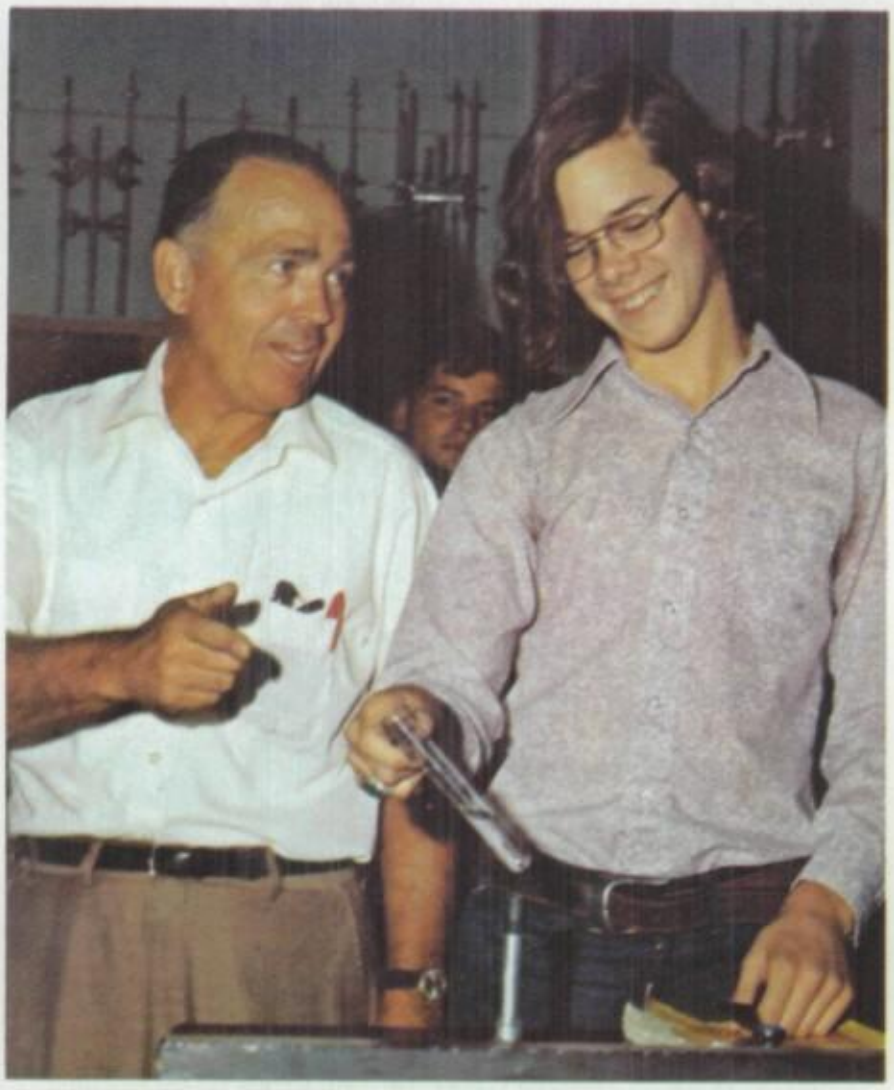
The Saga Staff of Nineteen Seventy-Four

Everyone who knows Mr. Bill Sord recognizes him as one of the most loyal Vikings that this school has ever had. His support of Valley's activities and traditions is well known to both students and staff. For these reasons and many more, the Saga staff is proud to dedicate its 1974 yearbook to Mr. Sord.

In his seven years at Valley, Mr. Sord has taught almost every type of math class as well as physics and chemistry. Also, he has devoted much of his time to coaching B-team football and B-team baseball. He sponsored the class of "73" and now is sponsoring the class of "76."





During a lab in Chemistry, Mr. Sord offers assistance to Steve Reynolds.

In one of Valley's football games, Mr. Sord analyzes the situation with Ms. Shoon.

Academics

Valley High School has seen some changes this year. In the administration, Merl Riggs is the new principal. The counseling office has two new counselors, Pat Baca and Clyde Archibeque. There are also eleven new teachers in various departments around school. These new faculty members have made many new friends of students and teachers alike.

New Principal Merl Riggs

Members of the school board for Albuquerque Public Schools are Daniel McKinnon, Maureen Luna, Henry Willis, Ted Martinez, and Joseph Zanetti.

Maureen Luna, a new member of the school board, was elected to replace Jeanette Stromberg who has retired. Ms. Luna joined the other four board members in deciding APS policy.

Ernest Stapleton, principal at Valley from 1956-1962, is in his third year as superintendent.

Working closely with Mr. Stapleton was Robert Montoya. His work as North Area Superintendent greatly benefited three high schools, twenty-two junior highs, and seventy-nine elementary schools in the North Area.

Merl Riggs came to Valley last summer not knowing where his office was. After he found it, a gym got painted, the gym floor was refinished, and things began to happen at Valley.

Mr. Riggs came to Valley from Cleveland Junior High where he had been principal for three years. Before that, he had been principal at McKinley and Monroe Junior Highs.

Born and raised in Nebraska, Mr. Riggs received his BA from York College there. Then he came to New Mexico where he received his master's in school administration from Highlands. He taught at Wilson Junior High for 10 years.

Mr. Riggs and his wife Ernestine have one daughter, Ruth, who is in college.

Forty-Seven Years Accumulated

While discussing problems of the auto registration, Ms. Hays and Mr. Gonzales are surprised by the photographer.

Valley's administration was made up of forty-seven years of loyal service from Mel Gonzales, Bert Everett, Marlene Dunaway and Marie Hays. These four people along with the secretaries helped Merl Riggs to run Valley in his first year as principal. Mr. Everett is primarily concerned with curriculum planning; Ms. Dunaway works primarily with data processing and senior graduation requirements; and Mr. Gonzales works mostly with attendance and building and grounds.

Counseling Office Provides Variety

There were several changes in the counseling department this year. A new head counselor and two new counselors were added to last year's staff to replace two counselors who found other jobs. One of these counselors who left is actually still at Valley, at least two days a week. Betsy Yost is now working for APS as a counselor for Bordertown students. She is paid from funds provided by the Navajo tribe and also works with students at Highland and Jefferson Junior High School.

Pat Baca, formerly a VR counselor, now specializes in helping VHS students find jobs and Clyde Archibeque, who was a counseling intern last year, returned to Valley full time.

Its 14 members teach a wide variety of subjects including English II, Senior English, Reading Experiences, Dramatic Literature, Shakespeare, Writing Experiences, Science Fiction, Gothic Novel, and Literary Backgrounds. New to the English curriculum this year was Magazines and Newspapers, taught by Lawrence Cook and Ethnic Literature taught by Jane Murphey. Students in Magazines and Newspapers studied these media carefully analyzing such things as news biases of reporters and the traditional "5-W's."

In Ms. Murphey's Ethnic Literature class students read the works of such minority authors as Scott Momaday, Rudy Anaya, and James Baldwin.

Social Studies Department Puts

The History Department, headed by Buddy Robertson, made several changes this year in courses. American Government, taught by Phil Ewing, was one new class which was an introductory course to political science. The class was mostly about national, state, and local governments, with sections of each department in national government.

Comparative Communism, also taught by Mr. Ewing, discussed Communism around the world and the way that form of government got started.

Victor Crocco also taught two new courses this year: World Issues and Great Events in History. Students of the World Issues class voted at the first of the year what issues they wanted to discuss. Some issues chosen were energy crisis, pollution, the plight of the Indians, and Watergate.

A new teacher in the History Department was Kathy Buck, who taught US History. With the two-credit system, which is in its second year, juniors had to do an outside project which accounted for much of their final grade.

Many students took Sociology I, and for those who were more advanced, there was Sociology II. These classes were taught by Lasell Rector and Christine Willis, respectively.

Discussing an assignment in World Religions are Ray McKenzie, Brent Brito, Lorraine Jaramillo, and Anna Andrade.

Steve Apodoca, Robert Dixon, Marcella Baca, Danny Marquez, Margaret Archuleta, Beverly Cordova and Dolores Garcia prepare for a lab in Biology I.

John Willow and Don Emilio work on a physics experiment.

Sophomores had two choices for their science credit this year, since Biology I and Anatomy and Physiology were both offered. Three new Biology teachers were added to the staff this year, Patricia Bodwell, James Daly, and Robert Iden. Mr. Daly also teaches Conservation.

Chemistry II replaced Biology II allowing the students who had taken Chemistry I during their junior year to take Chemistry II their senior year. Chemistry I and II were taught by Ed Dinello, the science department head, and Bill Sord taught Chemistry I.

Zoology and Conservation were offered as electives to juniors and seniors. These were full year courses. The zoology class took field trips to several parts of the city for observation purposes. Physics was another class offered only to seniors and juniors. This class was taught by Mr. Sord.

ROTC took several field trips this year to compete in drill meets. In their first meet which was held in Roswell, the drill team took first place. They are also ranked third in the nation.

Home Ec Becomes Department;

This year at Valley a wide variety of classes were offered in the Home Ec Department. Two classes this year were taught by Jeanne Dabney: HERO I and II. The students of both two-hour classes, and were career oriented. The students of HERO II were offered a job after completing the two-hour course.

Five new classes were offered to better prepare the student for the world outside. They were Foods I and II, Clothes I and II, Hobby Stitchery, Interior Design, and Human Development.

During the Christmas season HERO I learned how to make Christmas decorations such as wreaths, corsages and other decorative items. During the entire year, they also took many orders for wedding cakes which were sold throughout the city. Among other things, these classes tested their skills at making terrariums and fresh flower arrangements.

Sue Bowers headed the Valley Business Education Department this year. The basic idea of Business Education was to help train students to qualify for jobs in the business world immediately upon graduation or to use their skills to help them through college. The nine teachers in the department taught a wide variety of courses offered.

Classes offered to students were Typing, Shorthand, Bookkeeping, Office Procedure, Business Math, Distributive Education, Business Survey, Data Processing, Business Law, Cooperative Office Education, Business English, and How Not To Get Cheated.

The Business Department was one of the few departments that did not acquire any new members to the faculty.

Students enrolled in business courses were eligible for DECA or Distributive Education Clubs of America. This was the second year DECA has been at Valley since 1960. DECA placed students in jobs throughout the city and also offered experience in money management, merchandising, and marketing. DECA sponsored different projects to raise enough money to send two officers to go to district DECA held at West Mesa High School.

The Communicative Arts Department this year gave students a wide selection of classes from which to choose. For the past four years, James Beasley has been head of this department, which includes band, chorus, language, and arts and crafts classes.

Choral music teacher Robert Sheets' Ensemble Class became coed this year making it a mixed ensemble. Tom Kelly taught the band classes while Beth Ottinger taught the orchestra classes.

Arts and crafts, a popular class, had a new teacher this year, Mary Lou Sauters.

The foreign language offerings included Spanish and French this year. Ben Sandoval and Estelle Lane taught Spanish while French was taught by Jan Wild.

Debbie Bunten and Cindy Griego work with water colors in their Art I class.

ICT Starts Second Year in

Valley's Vocational Education Department has grown quite a bit in the past few years. Agriculture II and Horticulture II and III are just a few of the additions.

The Horticulture classes, taught by George Head, sold various types of plants this year, especially during Christmas.

Darrell Poe who taught all Agriculture classes, donated several pieces of machinery for the students to work with.

Industrial Cooperative Training (I.C.T.) was in its second big year under the direction of Russell Wade. All students enrolled in the program were employed before the end of the first semester.

Roger Alink and Ronald Cervantes both taught Power Mechanics due to the great demand by students.

Alfred Dzielak experienced a little trouble at the first of the year due to the wood shortage; however, the students had enough time to construct many projects.

Year's Physical Education Program

Ms. Webb shows Candice Granados how to hold a bat.

Coed PE was the newest, most popular course added to the PE Department this year. It was taught by Dean Voge and enabled male and female students to become physically fit together.

In addition, the Physical Education Department offered a wide range of sports in its program to develop physical skills in Valley students as well as to give them a chance to exercise. Some of the sports played in the PE classes this year included basketball, football, tennis, softball, track, volleyball, swimming, speedball, and ping-pong. The classes also studied how to keep their bodies physically fit.

Valley has one of the best Physical Education facilities in the city, which includes an indoor swimming pool, outdoor tennis courts, a new gym floor, and also some of the best equipment in the city.

During playnites which usually occurred on Tuesdays, the Physical Education Department gave the use of their facilities to the students. The students enjoyed such equipment as the ping pong tables, the volleyball equipment and the new gym floor, Also, the VHS swimming pool is open to the public during the summer and other times when it is not being used by the school.

Ms. Webb blows her whistle as the PE class comes to an end.

Media Center Entered Its Third Year

Ms. Pino and Ms. Hanna work on material for the Media Center.

Relaxing in the Media Center reading magazines are Tony Metoyer, Gery Garcia, and Doug Schwab.

The Media Center entered its third year of service for students and teachers under the direction of Buddy Robertson.

Valley's Media Center offered a vast variety of books and educational aids for students studying.

Barbara Pino, who was a secretary last year for the counselors, is now working in the Media Center as an educational aide. Wilma Lachmann and Marjean Molzen are the librarians; Marjorie Komadina is the book room clerk; Delia Sanchez and Peggy Hanna work as educational aides; and Charles Caserio is head of the career education program at Valley.

The Media Center is open at 7:15 every morning and stays open till 3:00 every afternoon for the students who can't get to it during school hours.

The Media Center is equipped with viewers with which students can watch movies, film strips, and film loops. There are 70 different types of film loops and 350 different film strips with two loop projectors, one individual movie viewer, and three previewers for film strips.

Cafeterians and Custodians Produce Fine Results

Valley's full-time cafeteria staff for 73-74 was Hazel Ramsey, Mable Nix, Irma Wise, and Johnnie Goodson.

Inflationary prices have been hitting everybody this year, and the cafeteria workers worked hard to have their food worth the price. This year APS was short of money, so prices of meals went up in all the public schools in the city.

The custodians worked long hours at night to keep our school clean. Our activities took hard work to clean up, and they're the ones that get stuck with the clean-up every year. The custodians this year have done a truly fine job. Valley's campus is one of the cleanest and most beautiful in the city, and that's because of the hard work they do.

The custodians for 1973-1974 were Eloy Cebada, Juan Maestas, Salomon Griego, and Andres Vigil.

Activities

There is something to do at Valley High School every week. A person can always find an activity going on like a playnight, a movie, a dance, a game, or anything the students can think up. The activities at Valley give the student a chance to meet new people and to make new friends. From registration to graduation activities play a big role in every student's school life.

B-Team Cheerleader, Officer Elections,

September

Valley's activities started with registration on September 4-5. The first major activity came on the seventh when over 150 students traveled to Farmington for the first football game of the season.

The B-team cheerleaders and Victor Viking were chosen at the first all-school assembly held on the 20th. Fair Day followed on the 21st when students only went to school for only half a day.

The week of 24-28 was a busy week of activities that started with the Saga pictures on the 24-25, election of sophomore officers on the 26th and a dance sponsored by the junior class on the 28th.

Even though many people regretted coming back to school, the excitement of a new year, a new principal, and new friends made the return acceptable.

Exchange students Jean Molinetti, Denise Sadicoff, Silva Tresnjak, and Tajudean "Ted" Juniad watch the tryouts for B-team cheerleaders at the first all-school assembly.

October

With Viking Day getting closer and closer, the twenty finalists for Homecoming Court were presented at an all-school assembly on October 5. The top ten were chosen, and another election on October 9 was held for selection of Vi-Queen and the two princesses. Working up till 12:00 P.M. on October 11, students prepared the gym for the big occasion the next day, Viking Day, October 12. With an assembly that afternoon, the football game that night, and the dance at the UNM Student Union Building to end it all, Queen Ruthy Salazer and many other Vikings had a busy, hectic, memorable day.

Class rings were ordered October 16 and 17 as excited Juniors picked out their favorite rings.

The Sophomores, anxious about Beanie Week, put on a playnight October 22 to raise money for the Spirit Sweetheart dance.

Students received a much-needed break October 25-26 as Teachers' Convention came. With all the month's activities, October indeed was a busy month for Valley students.

Ugly Men, Attorneys, Defendants

The week of Nov. 12-15 was a busy one for students. There was a play-night on the 12th, Indian fry-bread sale on the 13th-14th, college day also on the 14th, and senior graduation orders and an ice-skating party sponsored by the sophomore class on the 15th.

November 15-18 the all-school play, Penthouse Legend, ran. The unique part of the play was that the audience acted as the jury.

Ugliest Man on Campus was held the week of Nov. 25-30. The sophomore class surprised both the juniors and the seniors by coming in strong first with $287.10.

Students were offered two assemblies on consecutive days with the Spurlows and the UNM Gymnastics team.

December

Activities in December started off on the third with a 104-102 victory for the Varsity Basketball team against various members of the Valley faculty.

December also saw the opening of basketball, wrestling, and swimming seasons. The middle of the month had Valley's varsity wrestling team entered in the Manzano Invitational, while the end of the month had the St. Pius Sophomore Invitational, and the Running Pirate Holiday Classic Basketball Tourney in Grants.

Beanie Week, the annual time devoted to making Sophomores miserable, was held in the first week of December after being delayed several times. Sophomores were teased, made to sing, and put in trash cans. The week was brought to an end with a combined Kangaroo Court and Pep Assembly.

Other activities in December were the Sophomore movie, and a playnight.

January

The energy crisis, along with the snow and cold weather, gave students three extra days of vacation. When students did come back to school, they had to come in the darkness of the morning.

The highlight of January activities was a basketball confrontation with the Valley Vikings meeting the defending state champion, Manzano Monarchs. The gym was wall-to-wall people as an estimated 2300 fans packed in to watch the battle between the two top teams in the city. Many people left the gym with a feeling of excitement and surprise as the Vikings upended the defending champs 71-62.

The annual "Snow Frolic" was held on January 25 in the cafeteria. Snow Queen was Senior Mary Curran, and princesses were Junior Melanie Padilla and Sophomore Sabina Armijo. Music was by Blue Snow.

Spring Activities

With the ending of school near, seniors prepared their final stage of their education which is graduation. Seniors ordered their caps and gowns from mid-February to March. Also, with the end of school, time was running out for the juniors to prepare for the annual Junior-Senior Prom.

The Operetta, one-act plays, and drama production shared the spotlight with spring sports. Once Upon a Mattress was put on by Concert Choir from April 4 to 6, one-act plays ran through the week of March 4-8, and the drama production of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" was held in May.

Spring sports included the beginning of baseball, track, golf, and tennis seasons. District and State tournaments for basketball and wrestling were held in Albuquerque with Valley participating in both.

Queen Vina Reigns Over Annual Military Ball

With Sandia scientist Dr. Henry Monteith as their speaker, the members of the Valley AFJROTC held their fifth annual Military Ball April 27 at the Western Skies Motel.

Vina Saiz reigned over the festivities which included a formal dinner at 6:00, presentation of awards to outstanding cadets by the American Legion, the Air Force Association, and the Sons of the American Revolution, and a dance.

She was selected from among 14 girls nominated and voted upon by the cadets. Her princesses were Shirley Chavez and Rosalie Amaya. All three girls are seniors.

Vina was crowned by last year's queen, Lillian Torrez. After the coronation, the cadets, their dates, and invited guests danced to the music of Purple Haze.

Honors

Staters, West Point Leadership Award winners, Who's Who, and Smart Scholarship Awards are only some of the awards andhonors Valley students have accumulated over the year. Students work hard for these awards and honors. Usually, they are given to the students by their peers or teachers. Some, like the Tribune Prep Player of the Week, are awarded by organizations outside the school, but all are highly valued.

Six Foreign Students Attend Valley

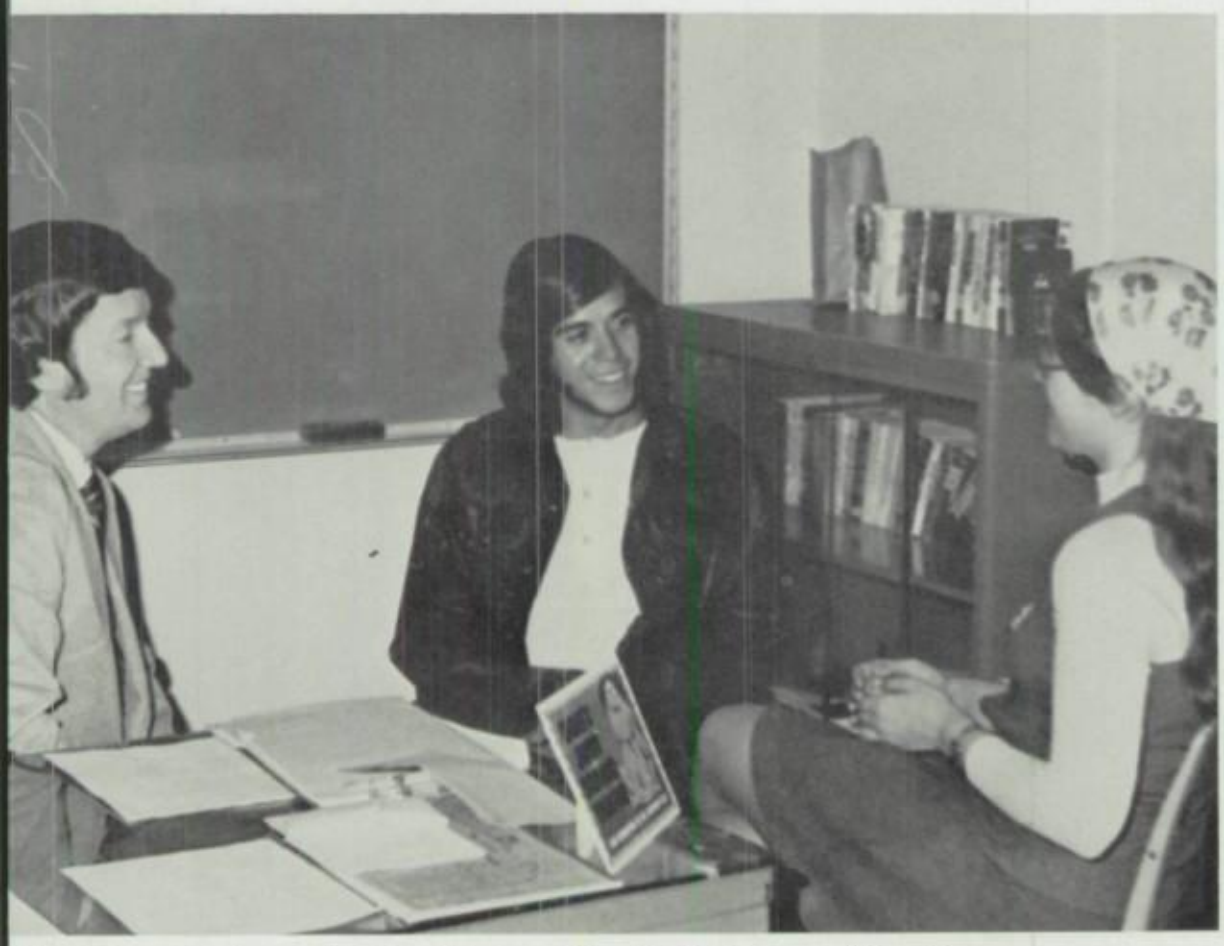
Albert Paulo, student from the Philippines, poses before a choir concert.

Sylva Tresnjak, student from Yugoslavia, checks out books from the Media Center.

From Europe, Mexico, South America, Africa



Miguel Duran, foreign student from Mexico, talks with Mr. Parker and Kim Mason.

Jean Molinetti, student from France, was an escort during the Homecoming assembly.

Tajudean Junaid, student from Nigeria works on a project in electronics.

This year, six countries were represented at Valley: Brazil, Mexico, France, Nigeria, Yugoslavia, and Philippines. Sylva Tresnjak, a foreign exchange student from Yugoslavia, was very excited and fascinated to meet and see how Americans lived and acted.

Jean Molinetti came to Valley from France and stayed with Ms. Rhodes. He came for a short visit leaving December 14.

Miguel Duran came to the US from San Luis Potsi, Mexico. His reason for attending school in the US is that he wants to learn English and understand the people around him.

Tajudean (Ted) Junaid is from Nigeria. He joined us for his second year. Ted said he came back to Valley because the people here are very friendly.

Denise Sadicoff came to Valley from Brazil. She was an active participant in speech tournaments, winning third place in mime group at the St. Pius tournament in February.

Albert Paulo is attending Valley for his third year, and plans to graduate this year.

City-Wide, School Honors

Leroy Hood, James Sherred, and Tony Castillo were chosen Players of the Week by the Albuquerque Tribune.

Accorded Several Valley Students

Tony Metoyer was October's Student of the Month.

Players of the Week, a new addition to the Saga, were selected by the Albuquerque Tribune. Valley was represented by Leroy Hood, James Sherred, and Tony Castillo who were chosen for the city-wide honor for three consecutive weeks in January.

In April of 1973 nine junior boys and six junior girls were selected to attend Boys' State and Girls' State in Roswell and Las Vegas.

Politics became a part of the Staters' daily lives. Both Boys' and Girls' States were divided into cities, counties, and parties. Everyone was obligated to run for an office. A common sight during the week of running around from meeting to meeting was seeing groups of people developing long-lasting friendships.

Student of the Month is selected by Student Council each month. These students are chosen for the participation in activities or sports for that month.

Ricardo Zuniga (December), Greg Zanetti (November), James Sherred (January), and Ray Aragon (February) were other Students of the Month.

WP Leadership Award Goes to John Francis

Major Thomas O'Malley (right) presents the West Point Leadership Award to John Francis as Mr. Riggs looks on.

The five West Point Leadership finalists were chosen from a group of 20 boys who were nominated in their junior year. The 20 boys were selected by the faculty, with Mr. Vasquez coordinating the nominations and personally interviewing and questioning all 20 boys.

John Francis received the honor based on citizenship and participation in curricular and extra-curricular activities. John, a consistent straight-A student, is involved in many extra-curricular activities which include National Honor Society, swim team, Key Club, and Staters. John is also Cadet Commander for Valley High's Junior Air Force ROTC.

West Point Leadership Award finalists are John Francis, Tony Castillo, Andy Corder, Jeff Wolf and Jerry Black.

SEAL OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Organizations

Valley has a great variation in clubs and organizations for the students. They vary enough so that each student can choose from many according to his interests. A student can be involved in class government, drama, service clubs, or a club simply for fun. Meeting new friends with the same interests, making money through bake sales, play nights and other ingenious methods all add to the enjoyment of working with others, getting involved in school.

Student Council Helps Clubs Raise Money

By Regulating Fund-Raising Projects

At times it seemed the Student Council wanted to take over the school with all the requests and regulations placed upon clubs, organizations, and homerooms, but this was not the case.

Student Council began at the first of the year with the intent of becoming a true student government. It passed several resolutions and passed the "Regulations Governing Fund-Raising Projects" to make it possible for all organizations to make as much money as possible.

Sometimes called the Dictator's Club, the Presidential Cabinet had the often unbearable task of trying to get all the organizations to cooperate. With threats of impeachment, resignation, and assassinations, the Presidential Cabinet and Student Council finally succeeded.

Other projects which the Student Council did during the year were a Casino Nite, a Donkey Basketball game, Homecoming, and helping purchase blow-ups for the basketball players for the gym.

Members of the Presidential Cabinet include Andy Corder, Service and Safety; Cindi Chavez, Vice Pres.; Cathy Coulter, Treasurer; Carolyn Castillo, Assemblies; Jeff Wolf, Grievances; Debbie Montoya, Jr. Class Rep.; Eva Nielson, Sr. Class Rep.; Angela Sandoval, Soph. Class Rep. Not shown are Jean Sargent, Constitutions; Diann Chavez, Secretary.

Mike Garcia, Sherry Bedeaux Share Presidency;

Senior Senate started out the year enthusiastically plunging into Beanie Week, ideas on what to leave as a gift to the school and the usual question of what to do for money. Under the direction of Michael Garcia as president with Clyde Archibeque and Lawrence Cook as sponsors, the Senate worked very hard. At semester, Sherry Bedeaux took over as president and Cindi Griego was elected as vice-president. Having dances, sponsoring playnites, selling candy and holding hot chocolate and donut sales in the cold mornings of February were a few of the Senate's activities.

Seniors were responsible for leaving a gift as a lasting memory of the class of '74. They paid for the basketball warm-ups and spent most of their time working for a gift that all Vikings to come shall remember them by.

Valley's youngest class, the sophomores, had a very productive year. Selling candy, felt pens, holding movies and sponsoring the Wickham Brothers Buy-out, the sophomore class immediately got into the rush of things at Valley.

Their biggest project was sponsoring the Sweetheart Dance, held in February honoring the Spirit Sweetheart.

At semester, Kris Elder took over the presidency, but this didn't slow the sophomores down; instead they diligently worked to raise money using any funds left over this year for the prom which they must put on in their junior year.

Sophomore Senate was sponsored by Sandra Shoon and Bill Sord.

Junior Senate got off to a good start raising up to $200 during the summer months by having car washes, bake sales, and by selling cast-off items at flea markets.

Under the direction of Joe Martinez, Elena Martinez, Ruth Roybal, Annette Alvarado, and Debbie Montoya, the group worked very hard to come up with ideas to raise money for a great prom.

During the school year, the Senate organized several projects for money making. They gave the first dance of the year, had bake sales, sponsored playnights, and sold kazoos. The two biggest money-raising projects, however, were luminaria sales at Christmas and a buy-out assembly featuring a basketball game between the nationally-known, all-girl All American Redheads and the locally known, all-male faculty team. (The faculty men were soundly trounced.)

The Prom Committee, headed by Amy Hopkins, made decorations for the prom and decided on a band. They also worked hard during the dance setting up tables and giving out refreshments.

Junior Senate was sponsored by Jerry Duffey and Kathy Buck.

Being in National Honor Society is indeed an honor. To be eligible for membership, a student must, by his senior year, have had a 3.5 grade point average for the last three semesters. Sponsored by Bill Craig and Lasell Rector, the National Honor Society held the annual Ugliest Man on Campus contest, donating all the funds raised to the Warren A. Smart Scholarship Fund. They also had get-togethers such as kidnap breakfasts and the annual picnic in the spring.

Officers this year were Tony Anella, president; John Francis, vice president; Steve Akin, treasurer; and Sherry Bedeaux, secretary.

During the year, various speakers enlightened the meetings giving a little bit of variety to the usual everyday type meeting.

NHS officers are Tony Anella, president; John Francis, vice-president; Steve Akin, treasurer; and Sherry Bedeaux, secretary.

NSHS Attends Spanish Speech Meet

Officers elected this year were Margaret Grammer, secretary; Daphne Sandoval, vice-president; Steve Williams, president; and Alice Reidl, treasurer.

The National Spanish Honor Society is made up of the top students in the Spanish classes. During the year they held meetings to discuss methods of raising money for their activities. They sold candy and had a playnight. All money raised went towards a Spanish speech meet they attended in Las Vegas, New Mexico.

La Sociedad Honoraria Hispańica está compuesto do los estudiantes más inteligentes do los clases de español. Durante el año tenían juntas a discutir métodos de financiar sus hazañas. Vendían dulces y tenían un "playnight." Todo su dinero fue a comprar un cauchal en Las Vegas, Nuevo Méjico para su caudillo.

Members this year include (back row) David Sandoval, Margaret Grammer, Mark McConaughy, Steve Williams, Thomas Maurino, Alice Reidl, Daphne Sandoval and Carolyn Castillo. Sponsors are Estelle Lane and Ben Sandoval; (front row) Silva Tresnjak, Cynthia Leyba, Juanita Zamora, Patricio Griego, Judy Perea, Marie Garcia, and Alice Van Horn.

Staters' Club Helps Organize All-City

Made up of Boys' and Girls' Staters and the alternates, the Staters' Club had a very active year. Besides helping several clubs write their constitutions, they were very involved in starting an all-city staters' club. By using what they learned at Boys' and Girls' State, they acquainted other Valley students with governmental procedures and competed with other staters' clubs in basketball and volleyball tournaments.

They also wrote and edited the first newsletter for all the staters' clubs in Albuquerque. Another big event was getting T-shirts for the club members. Led by Jeff Wolf as president, Patricia Griego as vice-president, and Cynthia Leyba as secretary-treasurer, the staters set a goal to be once again more of a service club to others at Valley.

Staters' Club officers include Cindy Leyba, secretary-treasurer; Jeff Wolf, president; Pat Griego vice president.

Key Club Works in Numerous Projects Throughout Year

Valley's Key Club is sponsored by the Rio Grande Kiwanis Club. Led by Mike Kraemer as president, assisted by Jeff Peacock as vice-president, and Ronnie Inge as secretary-treasurer the club strove to fulfill their purpose, which is that of being a service club for boys.

They decorated the football stadium for homecoming by constructing a flaming "V" which was lit at halftime and built a throne for the queen and princesses to observe the game from. They also helped with the college day where college representatives from all over the country came to speak to interested students.

Key Club also had a new sponsor to take the place of Mr. Copeland. Mr. Vasquez, head counselor, advised Key Club on various matters. Along with Mr. Vasquez and the other officers Mike Kraemer and his club had another great year.

Keyette Officers are (top) Jean Sargent, Cynthia Leyba, and Marie Fixemer; (bottom) Pam Zanetti and Andrea Leyba.

Keyette Club Raises Money for Scholarship Fund

Sponsored by Jane Murphey, the Keyettes got off to an enthusiastic start. Affiliated with the Key Club, their biggest objective is that of being a service club. They worked with Key Club in several of their projects.

This was their second year as a Valley club. They were led by Pam Zanetti as president. They accomplished several goals that they had set at the beginning of the year. They helped with Homecoming decorations and were in charge, along with the Key Club, of decorating the stadium for the Homecoming game.

At Christmas the group sang at a Senior Citizens' home. This spring they made a donation to the Warren A. Smart Scholarship fund.

Always there, ready and willing to help, the Keyettes worked for Valley and its students.

Keyette members are Lisa Baca, Jennifer Dixon, Jill Black, Cindy Chavez, Pam Zanetti, Jean Sargent, and Marie Fixerer.

Other Keyette members include Anna Herrera, Josephine Warwick, Carolyn Castillo, Barbara Griego, Cynthia Leyba, Marie Garcia, Emily Torres, Valerie Andrews, and Andrea Leyba.

VICA, Media Center Aides Gain Work Experience

Students working in the Media Center gain experience working a librarians and library aides. They learn all the procedures necessary b actually checking material in and out, filing material, and working under direct library conditions. By working in the Media Center one period of each day, they earned one high school credit and learned through actual experience the procedures of library work.

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America was in its first year at Valley. VICA is a national organization composed of students from the Industrial Cooperative Training program. It involves both boys and girls from Valley's student body, preparing them for careers in trades and industries.

VICA youth activities foster a respect for the dignity of work; promotes high standards in trade ethics workmanship, scholarship and safety. The student has an opportunity to develop his fullest potential in citizenship, leadership and character.

Indian Club Holds Third Annual Pow Wow

Officers of the Indian Club are Cameron Martinez, Rita Begay, and Frank Gilreath.

Adding color and beauty to Valley, the Indian Club, proud of their heritage, strove to acquaint other Valley students with their culture.

They traveled all over the state participating in different pow wows, making their own costumes and displaying their culture. They also went to different high schools around Albuquerque, participating in assemblies.

In February, they held the third annual Pow Wow, inviting other students from around New Mexico to participate during the year. Their main objective was to raise money for traveling and putting on the Pow Wow. They sold fried bread several times adding variety to most Valley students' lunches. They also helped organize an all-city Indian Club where the officers of Indian clubs at various high schools met to share ideas and think up new ones.

Lack of Money Prevents Ski Club Annual Trip

Ski Club officers are Ann Kelly, vice president; Leslie Colley, treasurer; Jeff Wolf, president; and Debbie Bunten, secretary.

Although Ski Club didn't go to Purgatory, members worked throughout the year selling candy, having bake sales, and setting up luminarias at Christmas.

Jeff Wolf discusses alternative plans for use of Ski Club's money.

DECA Receives Numerous Awards at District

Distributive Education is a two-year, work-study program that teaches students careers in the field of retailing. Seniors get three hours of credit for this class (one hour in class and the remainder on the job). They are dismissed early for work and put in a minimum of 15 hours work per week. Juniors are also in the program, but attend school the whole day.

DECA is the club that is affiliated with Distributive Education. DECA gives students a chance to compete in the fields of marketing and distribution, such as salesmanship, advertising, and display. The Valley chapter is working to reach the highest goal that any DECA chapter can attain: Chapter of the Year. DECA members are also active in school functions. Member Donna Washington was a princess in the Homecoming Court.

Office Education Association Provides

If you ever walk into D-building and find a group of girls typing, taking shorthand, keypunching and working on all kinds of business procedures, you have stumbled upon the Office Education Association. Looking very smart in their bright green and yellow outfits, the OEA was one of the most active clubs at Valley. They spent most of their time organizing sales projects to raise money.

The club, as a whole, takes part in both the regional and state contests for all the Office Education Association Clubs in New Mexico. Money raised during the year goes for renting buses to get to the contests and for an employer-employee banquet which is held every spring, as most of the members go to school for only half a day and are employed somewhere in the city the rest of the day, getting high school credit while also getting paid. While not working or raising money, the members held various teas for teachers or any visitors that happened to be around the campus. Every once in a while, the OEA girls have breakfast or supper meetings to discuss club business.

Ball, Sord Homerooms Fight It Out for First

Future Homemakers of America is made up of girls interested in homemaking and domestic living. They learn more about their futures as mothers and wives. They wish to learn all they can before settling down.

Each year they sponsor the annual Baby Contest using the money collected as votes to pay for yearbook pages, give parties to the top three homerooms, and donate the rest to the Warren A. Smart Scholarship Fund. The club was sponsored by Diana Davidson.

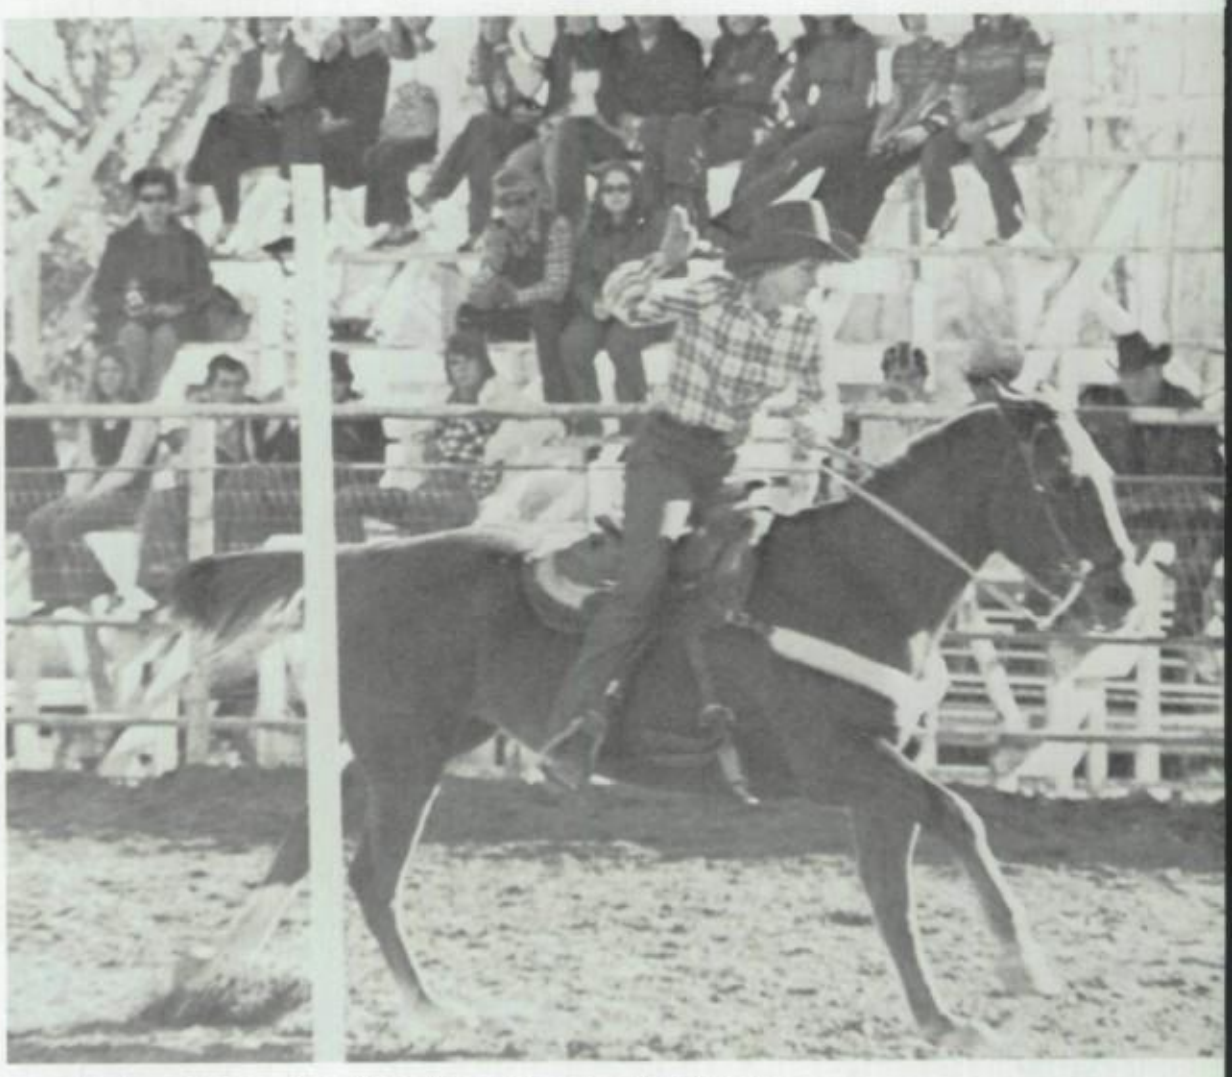
Future Farmers, Rodeo Club Divide for

After a one year union between the Rodeo Club and the Future Farmers of America, the two clubs have split up this year.

The Rodeo Club once more sponsored their annual Rodeo in November at the Sheriff's Posse Grounds. The two-day event featured cowboys and cowgirls from all over New Mexico competing in eight different events from Bronc Riding to Calf Roping. Although many VHS members competed in the rodeo, the only competitor from Valley receiving an award was Cindy Lindsey who took third in goat tying and barrel racing. To each winner in every event a trophy buckle was given. This gives others a chance to know the other cowboy's specialty.

The members of the club solicited local businessmen to help sponsor the Rodeo, therefore receiving publicity for their businesses. Some of the parents also participated in the planning of the Rodeo. The members at high schools throughout New Mexico attended.



Roxy Taylor competes in pole bending at the annual VHS rodeo.

Members of Rodeo Club are Mark Watkins, Jacky Brighton, Lorrie Cillessen, Verna Ward, Cary Jacques, Alexa Williamson, Curt Miller, Cindy Lindsey, Corky Morrison, Chris Benge, and Mike Threlkeld.

In October, the FFA got off to an early start by attending the National Convention in Kansas City, Missouri, where people from FFA clubs at various high schools all over the country got together to listen to speakers and share ideas for fund raising, get togethers, and many other things that concern FFA.

As soon as they got back, they started raising money. They raffled off a horse, sold calendars and hunting vests and painted house numbers on curbs.

Sponsored by Darrell Poe, they had many activities throughout the year — building a float and taking third in the State Fair Parade, electing Carole Menke as their sweetheart and meeting with other people from various FFA clubs.

Speech, Drama Clubs Take Sweepstakes at Pius

Members of the Speech Club are (sitting) Jeff Wolf, Cara McCulloch, Karen Alarid, Lisa Verplough, Edwina Cordova, Alice Reidl, Denise Luna, Dino Leyba, and Carol Candelaria; (standing) Ms. Miller, Roxann Taylor, Vina Saiz, Kelly Miller, Dawn Carraway, Steve Akin, Mike Golston, Leif Rustebakke, Anthony Tafoya, Caryn Wesner, and Karla Gorey.

After suffering from a quite serious illness, Ms. Miller came back and immediately started coaching the speech team members.

Memorizing lines, developing characterization, and writing speeches reflecting their opinions, the Speech Club worked hard in all the tournaments held at various high schools in Albuquerque throughout the year.

Taking first, second, and third in mime at the St. Pius tournament gave much satisfaction to those competing, but an even greater thrill was the fact that Valley took sweepstakes at the same tournament.

Competing in many fields of speech and drama, the speech team turned out a very good year with many people signing up for tournaments and working hard, striving for finals sometimes making it all the way, and others being satisfied with the thrill of competition alone.

Performing "Hobo Heaven" at St. Pius tournament are Dan Drury, Kelly Miller, and Edwina Cordova.

Cara McCulloch performs her mime during the St. Pius Speech and Drama Tournament.

Tournament, Perform in All-School Plays

Drama Club members are (kneeling) Denise Luna, Vina Saiz, and Angie Allen; (sitting) Melanie Padilla, Caryn Wesner, Karla Gorey, Jeff Wolf, Sherry Bedeaux, Edwina Cordova, Alice Reidl, and Lisa Verplough; (kneeling) Roxann Taylor, Karen Alarid, and Rayellen Searcy; (standing) Alfred Montoya, Anthony Tafoya, Steve Akin, Jeff Gardner, Kelly Miller, Kelly Howard, Leif Rustebakke, Joe Cordova, Dawn Carraway, Dino Leyba, and Cara McCulloch.

Officers of the Drama Club are Lisa Verplough, vice-president; Jeff Wolf, sergeant at arms; Cara McCulloch, president; Steve Akin, sergeant at arms; and Sherry Bedeaux, secretary-treasurer.

Denise Sadicoff, Karla Gorey, Angie Allen, and Carol Candelaria practice their skit "The Last Chance: Heaven or Hell," for a tournament.

Presenting an all-school play, Penthouse Legend, was the first item on the agenda for the Drama Club this year.

They worked hard setting up lights, digging for costumes, learning lines, and building sets for every production. Later in the year, they presented three one-acts and in the spring all-school play, Shakespeare's Twelfth Night. Drama Club was sponsored by Ms. Milholland.

Tutors Offer Services Throughout City

Knowing that you have helped a child and developed a special friendship is a joy that some of Valley's students experienced this year by tutoring at elementary and junior high schools in Albuquerque.

The tutors, who were sponsored by Ms. Buck, volunteered to take on the responsibilities of helping students with subjects they were having trouble with such as reading and mathematics. Giving at least two hours of their time a week to tutoring, they went to the school their child attended or to the child's home in the evening.

The tutors worked in conjunction with the children's teachers to plan a well-rounded program to supplement the children's work. They worked on a one-to-one basis with the children which they feel is the single most important factor in being able to progress with the child's supplementary education. This one-to-one contact brings about a closer relationship between student, teacher and tutor.

Radio Club New Addition to Activities

Mr. Chomiak demonstrates the use of a short-wave radio for Brett Bedeaux and John Davis.

The Radio Club is a new club at Valley. The members, under the direction of Dan Chomiak learned the basics of operating a ham radio and were in the process of trying to obtain their novice class licenses. Each student involved is extremely interested in electronics and is trying to get his or her own station at home. The members used a station in Mr. Chomiak's room, and meeting once a month, they conversed with other hams. They studied Morse Code and learned how transmitters and receivers were operated, having fun as they worked towards their own licenses.

Spanish Band Performs Various Numbers

Valley High's 1973-74 marching band poses in uniform. They are directed by Tom Kelly.

Under the direction of Tom Kelly, the band performed at games, held concerts and participated in several festivals. A special treat for Valley students at football games was watching the band as they marched. Working hard early in the mornings before school and in the last few weeks of summer, the marching band learned the techniques of marching in certain ways to create a large variety of formations.

Unable to go to Chihuahua, Mexico as they did last year because of the fuel shortage, the band participated in more festivals around Albuquerque and hosted the people from Chihuahua in their homes when they visited this year.

Looking forward to next year and the possibility of the fuel shortage being in existence no longer, they raised money for a trip to Chihuahua by selling candy, collecting old newspapers, scavenging for aluminum cans, and having other fund-raising events.

Many hours of hard work go into a piece of music, and each member must know what his music is for the whole group to sound good. Cooperation among members is almost as important as the talent of each individual person in the band.

Valley's orchestra, under the direction of Beth Ottinger put forth a very productive year. Performing at the Christmas Assembly and holding several concerts of their own, they provided all kinds of musical entertainment for those who attended.

Valley had five people from the orchestra participating in the All-State Festival and one in Albuquerque Youth Symphony. Since Ms. Ottinger came to Valley, the orchestra has improved tremendously. Besides teaching at Valley, she also instructs orchestras in junior highs and elementary schools around Albuquerque.

Under Sheets, Concert Choir Performs

Robert Sheets, Valley's Choral director, poses for the photographer just before a concert.

Double Quartet members are Shelly Robinett, Suzi Broyles, Rhonda Pogan, Denise Sanchez, Rayellen Searcy, Terrie Girard, Tom Felty, Douglas Porter, Leslie Cunningham.

The Varsity choir of VHS is Concert Choir. They participated in a clinic at ENMU and in All-City. Concert Choir had a Christmas Concert, a spring concert and participated in the Choral Festival held here at Valley.

Concert Choir is responsible for the production of the yearly musical, this year, Once Upon a Mattress.

It is always one of the top contenders in the homeroom competition for door decorations, and is in charge of making the throne at Homecoming.

Being made up entirely of talented singers, VHS was represented by five people at the New Mexico All-State Music Festival: Shelly Remele, Rayellen Searcy, Sherman Toler, Megan Harley, and Carol Candelaria.

Advanced Ensemble participated in many concerts and added a little bit of musical variety to programs put on by the students.

Members of Sextet are Terrie Girard, Cathy Gonzales, Shelly Remele, Lorraine Padilla, Barbara Pelligini, Marsha Phillips, and accompanist Suzi Broyles.

Free Birds Lifeless Leifers like it on the rocks.

Free Birds Lifeless Leifers let their true personalities show through.

Free Birds Lifeless Leifers was a new club added to the many at Valley this year. Under the leadership of Rayellen Searcy and Janell Chase as presidents, the club, made up entirely of girls, planned activities for weekends, raised money by selling mistletoe at Christmas, or just got together for a good time. There were no specific requirements to join and the club had a wide assortment of members. They would plan things to do on Friday and Saturday nights and get together having parties or just running around town. All in all, the club was established as a club for those who have nothing to do weekends.

Other officers were Roxy Taylor, commissioner in charge of transportation; Sherry Bedeaux, commissioner in charge of alternatives; Barbara James, commissioner in charge of problems; Terrie Girard, commissioner in charge of spirits; and Shelly Remele, commissioner in charge of funds and minutes.

Members are Jennifer Dixon, Edwina Cordova, Rayellen Searcy, Janell Chase, Sherry Bedeaux, Carolyn Castillo, Cara McCulloch, Terrie Girard, Barbara James, and Shelly Remele.

Vikettes Win 35 Ribbons at "Camp of Champs"

The Vikettes posing as elves perform a skit for the Christmas assembly.

Attending the "Camp of Champs" last summer, the Vikettes won 35 ribbons, the spirit boot, and a first-place trophy for being the best drill team.

The Vikettes practiced an hour each day before school and during first period throughout the football and basketball seasons. They provided entertainment for home football and basketball games and and also for assemblies. They also performed at half-time for the semi—pro New Mexico Thunderbirds football games.

Several dances they performed included a Turkish Bath dance which was presented at the Homecoming game, and a nostalgic dance from the fifties performed to the song "Boogie-Woogie Bugle Boy of Company B".

They have had many fund-raising projects during the year to help pay for their uniforms and clinics such as bake sales, car washes, and inventories at stores.

Majorettes Add Color, Spirit to Activities

The 1973-74 majorettes practiced every day before school and during first period to add color and spirit to Valley High sports. The majorettes performed at many football and basketball games with the band. They also went with the band to Santa Fe and took a first place for their performance.

Last summer they went to a majorettes' camp where they learned various routines and presented routines by themselves. The routines they learned included dance, march, and trick routines. According to head majorette Eva Nielson, "We also learned flashy routines, no twirling, just dancing." The majorettes worked very hard at the camp, "but it was not all work, because we had skits and enjoyed the camp very much," commented Eva.

Also, last summer the VHS majorettes had bake sales and car washes to raise enough money to buy their outfits.

Pep Club, Headed by Anna Herrera Adds

Adding spirit and color to the Viking stands this year was the Pep Club. Attending every game, yelling and cheering for the team, and doing routines to coincide with the cheerleaders, the Pep Club gave a bit of variety to all home games.

A new addition to Valley games was their performing at several halftime intermissions, which was something quite different than they've done in the years past.

The hard work during the summer of raising money, learning routines and sewing uniforms help put together a good year for Valley's Pep Club.

The girls practiced many hours during the summer, and after school started again in the fall one could see them marching and practicing.

First Year Journalism Students

The 73-74 Legend Staff, sponsored by Sharon Ball, includes (first row) Valerie Andrews, Mary Curran, Shirley Ortiz, Leslie Scarton, Tony Castillo, Andrew Sanchez, Henry Saavedra, and Andre Parker; (second Row) Dina Griego, Myra Kerby, Elaine Briley, Michelle Dinell, Sally Griego, Cynthia Martinez, Juanita Zamora, Roberta Ortiz, and Patricia Martinez; (third row) Lydia Estrada, Carmen Salas, Joe Cordova, Brenda Jewell, Leif Rustebakke, Marianita Chee, Emily Torres, Ricardo Zuniga, Orlando Torres, Eva Nielsen, and Jeff Gardner.

Eva Nielsen, Orlando Torres, Jeff Gardner, Leif Rustebakke, Valerie Andrews, and Elaine Briley work out plans for the February Legend.

Co-edited by Leif Rustebakke and Orlando Torres, the Viking Legend staff worked hard to satisfy the students' needs. Rushing towards deadlines, writing stories on what was happening at Valley and the surrounding community, and selling ads to nearby businesses to finance the paper took up a great deal of time for the staff. Nine issues were edited this year, including a special April Fool's edition. In between "on the spot" reporting, gazing at and reading the stars, taking pictures and pasting up the paper, the staff barely had time to do much else.

The staff tried to give the Valley students a paper varying in interests and covering all activities.

Juanita Zamora types a story for one of the Legend reporters.

Choosing "Friends" by Elton John as their theme, the Saga staff attempted to produce the best yearbook they could for the Valley students.

Under the direction of Mike Kraemer as editor, and sponsored by Sharon Ball, the staff hurried to meet section deadlines, identify people, think of eye-catching headlines and put together the yearbook by early March.

Many hours of hard work during and after school and sometimes on weekends went into the yearbook.

The yearbook staff decided on the cover, using the same design that Leroy Hood painted on the gym floor.

Inexperience seemed to be the biggest problem of the staff this year as all but one of the staff were in their first year and the sponsor Ms. Ball hadn't ever done a yearbook as big as this year's.

Debbie Bunten works in the darkroom on Saga pictures.

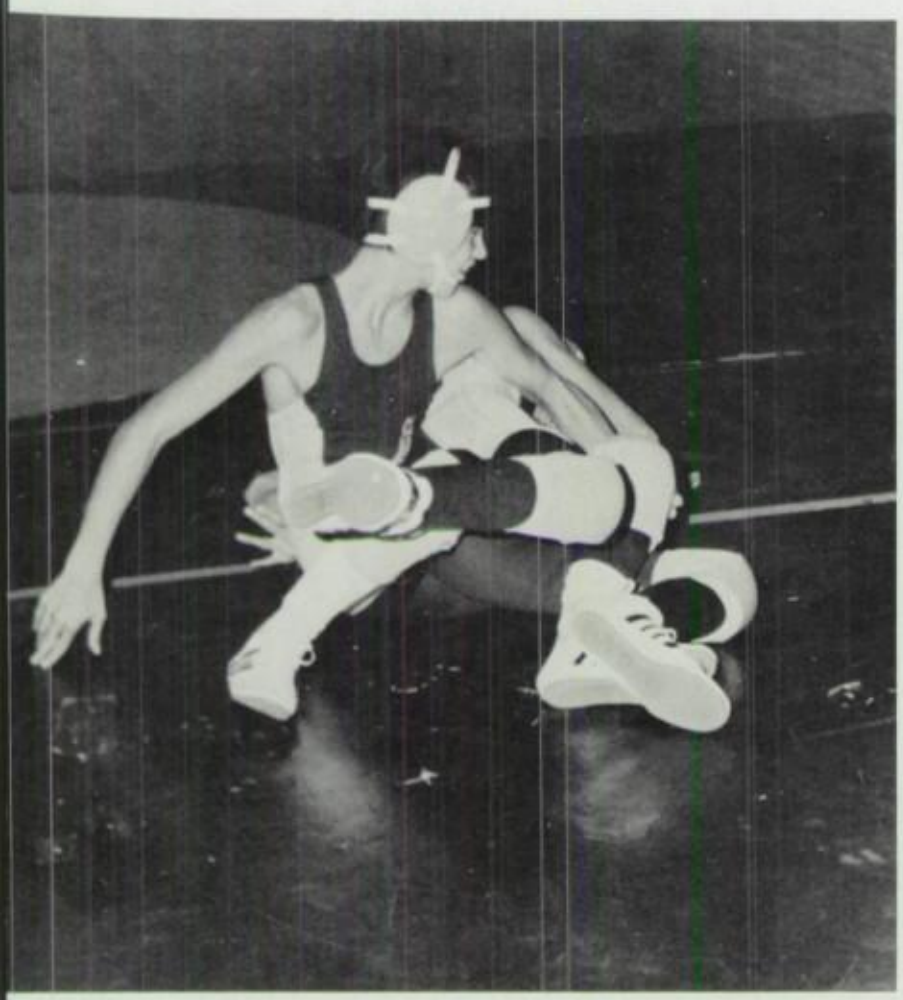
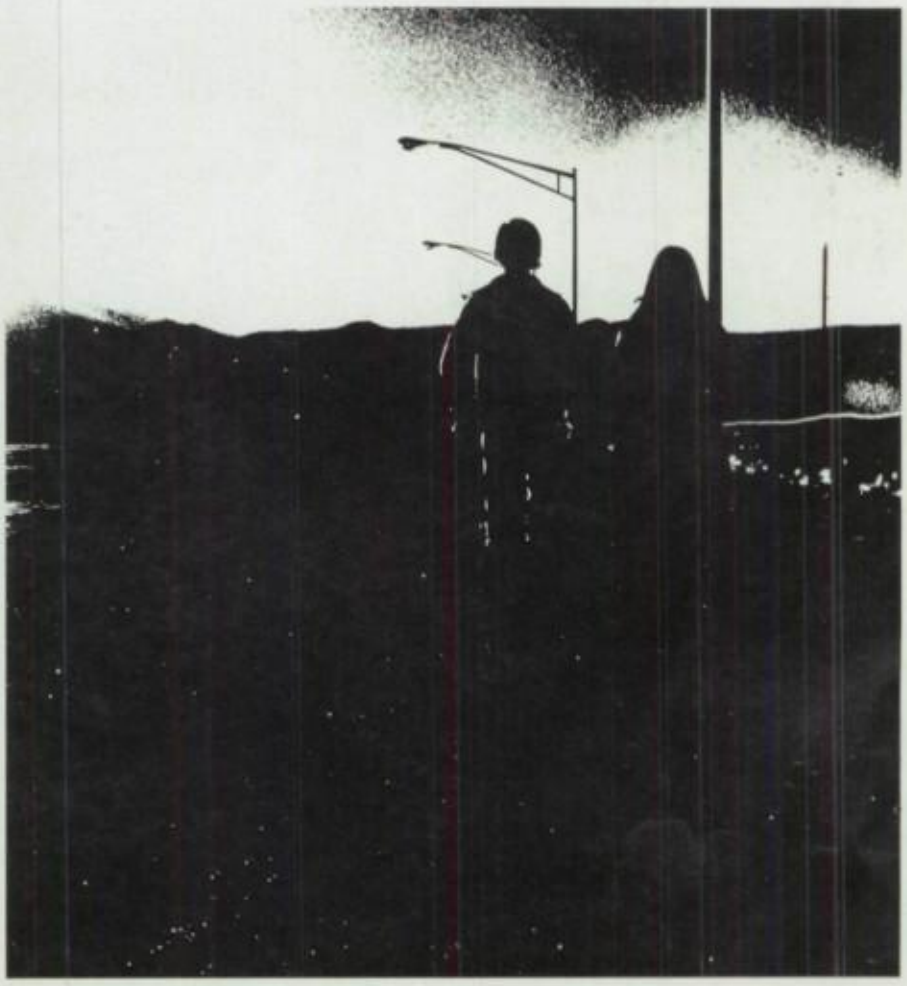
Sherry Bedeaux exclaims to Teresa Shockey, "What do you mean, the copy is too short?"





Sports

Desire, pride, and teamwork are just a few of the bases behind competing in sports. The agony of defeat and the sheer ecstacy of a victory come with being a member of a team. Of course, the individual should be competent in the sport he plays. Being on a team teaches a person to work with others and promotes spirit and friendship.

Valley High's football team ended the season with a disappointing 0-10 record. One of the main reasons for such a record was that new head coach Del Helton wasn't appointed coach until late in the summer — about two weeks before practice started. Coach Helton's assistants were Phil Ewing, Ken Kloeppel, Jerry Duffey, and Bill Steadman.

The Vikings were led by three-year letterman Mario Martinez. Martinez was elected 1st team all-district, 2nd team all-city, and 3rd team all-state. Glen Garcia was also named to the Honorable Mention all-state team.

The Vikings were also hurt by injuries. Returning all-city tackle John Sedall suffered a knee injury and saw action in only two games.

The Norsemen Gridders ended the 1973-74 season with a record of two wins and five losses. The team was plagued by injuries all season long. Another reason for such a disappointing record was the fact that not too many people tried out for the team. Many sophomores were needed for the varsity games which caused the B-team to forfeit games which were scheduled on the day of a varsity game.

The Norsemen did manage to defeat Albuquerque High and district contender Rio Grande. Valley's hopes look much better for a successful season next year.

Valley's 1973 Cross Country team placed second in 2AAAA district behind the Grants Pirates. Grants went on to take the State Crown. In his first year at VHS, Coach Dean Voge led the team to a successful season. The highlight of the season came when Valley qualified for the State meet in Roswell.

Valley harriers found state competition much tougher, yet finished fourth among the best runners in the state. Leading the way was sophomore stand-out Mark Romero who finished ninth in district and 17th in state. Simpson Dixon led the way in the district meet by placing a high fourth. Other Vikings placing in the State meet were Dan Drury and Elmer Benally.

Valley's grapplers also competed in the Gallup Invitational where Robert "Jude" Candelaria took the 155 lb. crown.

District competition was held February 21-22 at Rio Grande. Many fine performances were turned in by the Viking grapplers with Jude Candelaria claiming the District title in the 155 lb. class. With his District performance, Jude earned a No. 1 seeding going into the State Tournament which was held February 28, March 1 and 2.

Seven Viking wrestlers competed in the State Tournament: Jude Candelaria, David Luna, Carl Condit, Kenny Sanchez, Joe Crespin, Pat McNeeley, and Roger Tyson. Jude took State in the 155 lb. class with a 7-2 decision in overtime.

All-Tournament Teams as Vikings Take Third in State

Members of the varsity basketball team get ready to do their kill yell before the start of the Goddard game.

Compiling a 17-11 won-loss record, the 1973-74 Viking Cagers finished second in District and third in State. In the District Tournament the Vikes lost a thriller to Manzano in double-overtime, 69-67. Valley had earlier beaten the Monarchs at Valley 71-62.

Valley earned a trip to the State tournament when the Vikings defeated the Rio Grande Ravens in the semi-final game of the District tournament, 79-70.

In the State tournament, the Vikings were matched up against the Roswell Goddard Rockets, the No. 1 team in the state at the time. They played one of their better games of the season to defeat the Rockets 64-57 in the quarterfinals played at University Arena.

The Vikings then went up against the District 1AAAA Champion Albuquerque High Bulldogs and led throughout much of Oarsman Roman Chavez grabs a rebound from an AHS defender.

This year's Junior Varsity basketball team finished fourth in the Junior Varsity tournament held at Monzano. The Norsemen recorded 11-12 win-loss record, much improved from last year's mark. The Norsemen were led by varsity members Mike Van Damme, David Romero, David Baca, Danny Long, Genaro Montoya, and Kenny Beach. They were aided by members from the C-team.

Perhaps the best C-team in the city this year were the Oarsmen from Valley. The Oarsmen compiled the best record this year with a 18-win 4-loss slate. The Oarsmen took a third place in the St. Pius Sophomore Invitational. They were upset by West Mesa in the Semifinals by a score of . Robert Maestas and Anthony Santillanes were named to the All-Tournament team while Roman Chavez received an honorable mention award.

VHS swimmers' season record was 3 wins, 5 losses. The losses to Eldorado and Farmington were determined in the final event in each case. The freestyle relay team lost by less than one second both times.

Divers John Francis and Gary Martinez placed 1st as a diving team at the Albuquerque Academy relays.

The following swimmers qualified for the state meet in Portales on March 1 and 2: Steve Akin, Danny Barrows, John Francis, Craig Harvel, Gary Martinez, Chris Merwin, Bruce Pendery, Brad Sauters and Mark Sauters.

At the state meet, Gary Martinez placed fourth in the diving, while Steve Akin placed third in the 100 yard breast stroke event.

Girls' Swimming Team Experiences Building Season;

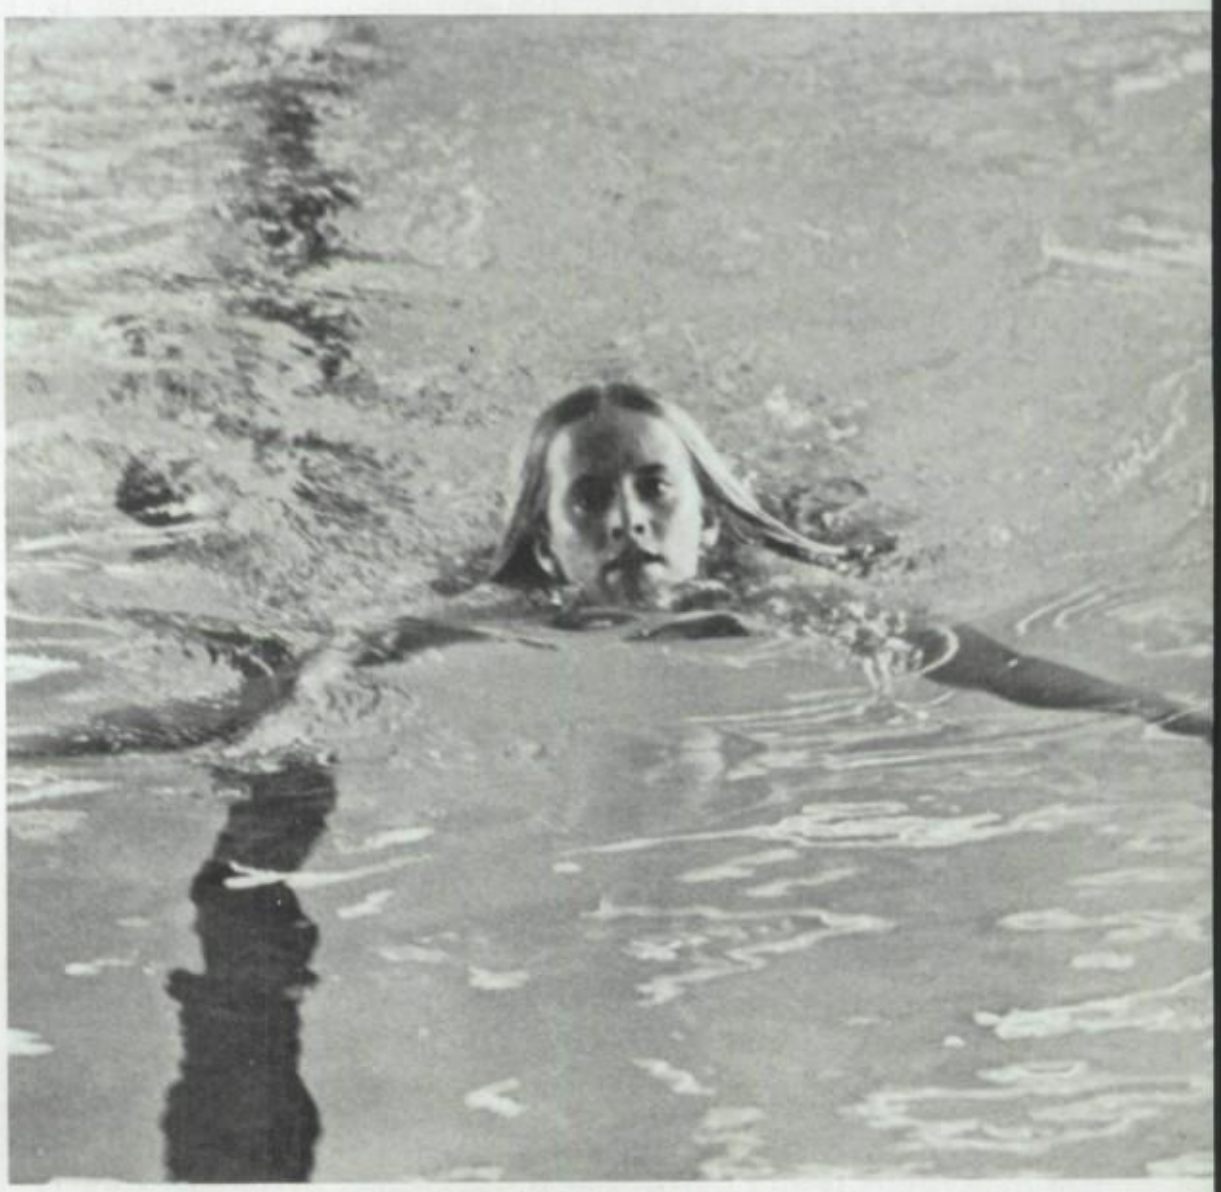
Members of the 1973-74 Girls' Swimming Team include Stephanie Burt, Rene Tackett, Julianne Bates, Kathy Simpson, Sandy Logan, Gini Baxter, Pippa Amick, Connie Rose and Bonny Byrn.

For the first year since 1970 there is a girls' swim team at Valley. 1973-74 will prove to be a building season and a beginning for competitive athletics for the girls. In order to qualify for the team, each girl must meet requirements of attending practices three times a week and competing in scheduled meets.

The first meet was held on January 25 against Del Norte, Sandia, and Rio Grande. Valley placed third, which isn't bad considering some of the girls have never competed on a swim team or in a meet. "The experience is good for them regardless of a win or loss," according to Sandra Shoon, coach of the team.

The girls' swim team suffered from lack of experience but is looking forward to a good season next year since all the members are underclassmen.

At the state meet in early March, Sandy Logan placed sixth in the 500-yard and 100-yard freestyle events.



Gini Baxter practices the breast stroke in the Valley pool.

Last year's baseball team finished the season with an overall record of 10-10 and 9-7 in district 2AAAA. The Viking team, coached by Buddy Robertson, Bill Sord, Roger Cordova, and Don Hollinbeck, had some surprising victories over district champion Manzano, powerful Sandia, and Eldorado.

The team was led by first-team, all-city pitcher Tom Avritt and second-team, all-city outfielder Walter Maestas. Behind the play of six returning lettermen, the Vikings finished fourth in the district.

The height of last year's season was a trip to El Paso to play Irvin and Austin High Schools, with a trip to Mexico. The Vikings split in El Paso losing an extra inning game to Irvin and beating a good Austin team.

This year's team has seven returning lettermen from last year's team, including the leading hitter from last year, Jerry Black. This year's team did well in summer American Legion play and is looking forward to a good season in, 74.

New Outlook Seen for Boys', Girls' Tennis

Boys' Tennis Team members include (kneeling) Carlos Pino, Chris West, Mike Fugate, Richard Romero, Larry Arellano, Steve Brown, and Joey Manno; (standing) Joey McCann, Rick Rolland, Andy Corder, Paul Stanzyk, Mike Golston, and Coach Russ Wade.

1973-74 brought Valley a new outlook in boys' varsity tennis. The team had only two returning lettermen but expected great things from its six sophomores.

Some of the sophomores have already proven themselves in making the finals in the winter tournament at the city tennis complex. According to Coach Russ Wade, "We're looking forward to a successful and rewarding season."

For the first time Valley has a separate tennis team for girls. Players are Gini Baxter, Gerri Duran, Leslie Farmer, Margie Gillespie, Sara Hall, Cindi Jones, Ann Kelly, Loretta Lucero, Theresa Olecksieu, and Leisa Robertson. It is a young team (Cindi and Margie are seniors) and shows much promise for the coming season.

Meets were scheduled during March and April against Farmington, Las Vegas, Grants, Ft. Wingate, Manzano, and St. Pius. The district and state tournaments were held in May.

Girls' Tennis Team members are Leisa Robertson, Cindy Jones, Theresa Olecksiew, Loretta Lucero, Sara Hall, Gerri Duran, Ann Kelly, and Coach Patricia Bodwell.

After the first few weeks of practice it was evident that Valley would be one of the stronger teams in district 2AAAA. Opening with wins over Manzano and St. Pius the first two weeks of the regular season, it was clear the Vikings were in contention for a State Tournament berth.

"This team is better than the '73 team," remarked head coach Vic Crocco. The team last year finished with a match record of twelve wins and four defeats, upsetting Highland and Del Norte. Del Norte is believed front runner in district with Valley right behind.

Returning lettermen are Issac and John DeVillers, Jeff Peacock and Jeff Gardner.

Last year in the prestigious Pardise Hills Invitational, Valley pulled through with a third place ahead of Sandia and Del Norte. Issac DeVilliers placed fifth with a 76 and for the first time since 1965, Valley brought home a trophy.

This year's Varsity Cheerleaders, Rita Pohl, Karen Sanchez, Barbara Ortega, Rosalie Byers, and Teri Ortega led a very spirited year at Valley during 1973-74 athletic events. The Varsity five cheered through all types of weather during football and cross-country seasons.

Selling ribbons, senior-grams, making signs for football and basketball games were among some of the things the cheerleaders did.

"The Varsity-five deserve a lot of credit for all the hard work and time they took to keep the spirit up at Valley High," said Principal Merl Riggs.

Valley also has a junior varsity which were backed up by the spirited B-team cheerleaders. They were Kim Hurlbert (head), Gloria Luna, Karen Rodriguez, Warrena Padilla, Patricia Martinez, and Estella DeLeon. They sponsored a playnite and held a bake sale to help raise money for their uniforms.

Underclassmen

Underclassmen consist of the junior and sophomore class members. During their first year at Valley, the sophomores busied themselves with finding classrooms, making new friends, and participating in Beanie Week. The juniors, after a summer that wasn't quite long enough, saw old friends again, got adjusted to new classes and teachers and anxiously awaited their senior year.

Seniors

Thinking about their future after high school, working hard in their classes, making this year the best of all their high school years, the seniors took on their most important high school roles. Seniors developed long-lasting friendships as their last year grew shorter and shorter. Many made plans to attend college here and all over the country, while others continued to work at jobs which they had secured through various work-study programs at VHS.

Sherry Bedeaux Takes Over

Officers elected this year were Diann Sandoval, historian; Lorraine Martinez, secretary; Sherry Bedeaux, president; Eva Nielsen, Student Council representative; and Cindy Griego, vice-president.

Under the leadership of Andrew Sanchez as president of the sophomore class, the class of '74 started out as most sophomore classes do: raising money, sponsoring dances, being harassed by seniors during Beanie Week and losing the UMOC contest with Mike Garcia as their candidate. Most of all, sophomores saw many new faces, some of whom would soon be friends.

In their junior year, the class of '74 got off to a roaring start by selling magazines, holding playnites and raffling off a stereo to raise money. Losing once again with Jeff Wolf as the UMOC contestant, it began to show that the class of '74 just wasn't one of the ugliest classes in Valley's history. Mike Garcia, as president, led the class with vice-president Steve Akin to put on a prom as a farewell to the class of '73. Winning Spirit Sweetheart with Barbara Ortega as the candidate, the class of '74 proved to be one of the most spirite'd classes at Valley. Friendship and grades again carried a great deal of importance to the class of '74.

Finally, as their senior year came around, the class elected Mike Garcia to lead the class once again. Many ideas for fund-raising and gifts were brought up, but nothing seemed to materialize. At the beginning of the new semester, Sherry Bedeaux took over as president after Mike resigned. Again, raising money for a gift as a lasting memory of the class for the years to come at Valley was the matter of most importance. The class of '74 won Spirit Sweetheart once again with Leah Johnson as the candidate and came in second with Andre Parker as their candidate for UMOC. Ruth Salazar reigned over the Homecoming activities and Mary Curran was elected as Snow Queen for the annual Snow Frolic. Valley will always hold many memories for the members of the class of '74. Friendships, hard work, new classes, yelling at games and thinking of the future after high school are a few of the important things in a student's life. Their high school days will always be remembered by those who enjoyed themselves and made Valley a major part of their lives.

Little bits of joy and sorrow and how much a smile from a friend meant when the world seemed to stop spinning — Valley was full of these. Every day yielded something new for all.

The days of youth will soon be gone for the class of '74, yet the sounds of laughter, lockers slamming, and the echoing of running footsteps as someone hurries to class will always live in their deepest and fondest memories.

I hope the day will be a lighter highway,
For friends are found on every road.
Can you ever think of any better way
For the lost and weary travelers to go?

Making friends for the world to see
Let the people know you've got what you need.

With a friend at hand, you will see the light.
If your friends are there, then everything's
all right.
It seems to me a crime that we should age.
These fragile times should never slip us by.
A time you never can or shall erase,
As friends together watch their childhood fly.

As in anything a group of people do, sometimes complications are involved, but an important factor is that of cooperation. As deadlines approached, tempers were shorter and people were tense, but the staff worked together, making friends and producing a yearbook of long and lasting memories.

The Saga staff would like to thank all the people at Bill Bell Studios for their never-ending cooperation and willingness to help and advise. The staff would also like to acknowledge the invaluable help and advice of Mr. Bob Vincent of Taylor Publishing Company. Finally, the staff would like to thank the administration, faculty, staff, and most of all — the students of Valley High School, for you are what a yearbook is all about.
